104 Days Around the South Pacific

No Snow for Us

Dear Friend—

We're off on our annual three-month trip to escape the New Hampshire winter. This year we've planned something completely different than our normal backpacking-through-Asia routine – we're off on a 104-day cruise through South American, Antarctica, South Pacific, New Zealand, Galapagos Islands and Panama Canal.

We'll be sending periodic e-mail postcards (of which this is the first). We'll try to keep the postcards short – for full details, you can visit our trip website, at <http://blessley.net/Travel/104tour>. If you'd prefer not to receive the postcards, simply email wt-unsubscribe@blessley.net. If you've received this postcard second-hand and would like to sign up, email wt-subscribe@blessley.net.
