104 Days Around the South Pacific

Indescribable!

Dear Friend—

We've just finished the Antarctic leg of our cruise. We had expected to find it interesting, but we were totally unprepared for what we experienced. Stunning, awe-inspiring, unbelievable, overwhelming...we would wear out the Microsoft Thesaurus before we found an adequate supply of superlatives. The scale and grandeur of the landscape were astonishing. It was surreal – like visiting another planet. It was utterly compelling – we were glued to the windows, or were out on the deck, whenever we weren't doing a landing. Here's a quick peak of what we saw; check out <http://blessley.net/Travel/104tour> for the details.

We'll be sending these e-mail postcards periodic. We'll try to keep the postcards short – for full details, you can visit our trip website, at <http://blessley.net/Travel/104tour>. If you'd prefer not to receive the postcards, simply email wt-unsubscribe@blessley.net. If you've received this postcard second-hand and would like to sign up, email wt-subscribe@blessley.net.
