104 Days Around the South Pacific

Paradise Lost....And Found

Dear Friend—

We've spent the last week hopping through the legendary islands of French Polynesia —Bora Bora, Tahiti, Moorea, Raitea, Rangiroa. Quite the change from Antarctica. There was an inverse correlation between how famous the island was, and how much we liked it. Bora Bora was boring, Tahiti was teeming, while little Rangiroa was ravishing. Here's a quick peak of what we saw; check out <http://blessley.net/Travel/104tour/011Polynesia.htm> for the details.
